

Exceptional Home Delivery Services

BTX Global Logistics offers a wide range of residential delivery service options for products of any weight, shape or size. With over 30 facilities across North America, BTX has the ability to accommodate the safe storage, distribution and delivery of your products to your consumers with ease and expertise. Our proprietary Home Delivery technologies allow customers to easily schedule and track the delivery of their shipments.

Reliable

Delivery of any items within the specified time frame.

Network of professional and courteous staff trained to handle your products with care and meet all of your delivery needs.

U.S.-based, dedicated Home Delivery Customer Service Center available around the clock.

Innovative

Intuitive Appointment Calendar allows your customers to easily schedule their delivery via their preferred method of communication.

State-of-the-art technology provides you with full visibility.

BTX's in-house IT team can securely transfer your data via your preferred method of communication: API, EDI, etc.

Flexible

Time-specific pickup and delivery, including before/after business hours special services.

Several delivery and installation options available, including:

- Curbside
- Threshold
- Room of Choice
- And specialty add-ons